TUTORING by

LOVE 2 READ

Now is the perfect time to love reading!

Scholarships

We seek funding from a variety of sources to support our students.

Donations provide our need-based scholarships for specialized reading tutoring.

We use a sliding fee based on the income of the parent(s) or guardian(s).

Specialized Tutoring

We provide one-on-one specialized tutoring based on the Structured Literacy Approach which includes the Orton-Gillingham method.

Additionally, we teach online using iSPIRE® which is an Orton-Gillingham-based program. Our Co-Founder and two of our Board members are certified iSPIRE Trainers. Our lead tutors are experienced with teaching using these methods and programs.

Amanda Wind

Ms. Wind is an experienced, certified, public school ESE teacher whose practice includes teaching students with Dyslexia and other language-based disabilities through multisensory structured literacy programs.

Student Applications

Our student registration and scholarship applications are located online at:

<https://www.Love2Read.org>

Our need-based scholarships are provided on a sliding scale based on parent(s) or guardian(s) income.

We seek funding from a variety of sources including donations and grants.

We are currently applying to become an approved provider for the Step Up for Students Reading Scholarship Program.

Karen Dailey

Mrs. Dailey is an experienced, certified, retired public school ESE teacher whose service to students with Dyslexia and other learning disabilities inspires her colleagues to join her in teaching using the multisensory structured literacy approach.

We Need You!

15% to 20% of students in the USA have symptoms of Dyslexia. (IDA)
Only 34% of fourth graders in the USA are reading at or above grade level, (2019 NAEP)
